ORDER GRANTING CONTINUANCE AND AMENDING SCHEDULING ORDER

The matters before the court are Defendants' Motions for Continuance filed in this case [dkt. #338, #339, #340, #341, #342, #343, #344, #345, #346, #347 & #348], after reviewing the motions, it is the opinion of the Court that the motions should be granted and that the trial in this case should be and is continued.

The Court further finds that the period between Tuesday, January 25, 2022 and Monday, March 28, 2022, is a reasonable period of necessary delay to allow counsel time for preparation for trial and further finds that such period shall be excluded from the time within which the defendant must be brought to trial and that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweighs the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial under the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(A).

This case shall proceed on the following amended schedules:

The Court will not accept a plea agreement after the aforementioned deadline. Should a plea agreement be reached and filed in this case and absent written objection filed contemporaneously therewith, this case will be referred to a United States Magistrate Judge for the purpose of administering the plea of guilty and the Fed. R. Crim. P. 11 allocution, subject to final approval and the imposition of sentence by the United States District Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall send a copy of this order to counsel for the defendant, the United States Attorney, the United States Pretrial Services and the United States Probation Office. Counsel for the defendant shall also notify the defendant of this schedule and advise the defendant that he must be present for all court proceedings unless excused by the Court.

Signed this 14th day of January, 2022

ORLANDO L. GARCIA
CHIEF U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
